

Retirement signals start of new pursuit

For 23 years, Audrey Boe Olsen served Midwest Assistance clients in North Dakota and Montana. “I was hired as a finance specialist,” Olsen says, “so rate reviews and financial analysis of water and wastewater system issues were probably the most consistent part of my job.”

May 31 marked Olsen’s last day with MAP. She’s now pursuing a political career and running for a seat in the North Dakota House of Representatives.

Posted June 16, 2008